As the mayor of the City of Daisy, I speak for myself and the citizens of Daisy. I have asked that the Daisy Post Office be left open due to the fact that we are a city government, with elderly and minority that depend on the Daisy Post Office. I do not agree that closing the Daisy Post Office would solve the financial problems of the US Postal Service. I do understand profit and loss and I do know the Daisy Post Office has shown a profit for the past two years, operating with an OIC, which we are pleased with this arrangement or any other agreement, such as a contract post office in the same facility.

Thank you for your most sincere consideration in making the final determination of the Daisy Post Office.

Inman Brown, Jr., Mayor
City of Daisy
